

The UC Consortium

announces

A Professional Development Workshop

Grammar & Language Teaching

June 19 - 21, 2004 at UC San Diego

This workshop will address three interrelated questions: (i) How does grammatical ability develop in second language learners? (ii) To what extent can explicit grammar instruction influence this development? (iii) What concrete techniques can teachers use to promote the rapid development of grammatical ability? Presentations on these topics will be supplemented by demonstration classes and discussion groups where participants can make use of techniques from the workshop to present ideas for lessons that address problems in their particular languages.

Guest Speakers:

M. Victoria González Pagani

UC Santa Cruz

Georgette Ioup

University of New Orleans

Bill VanPatten

University of Illinois at Chicago

Conducted by

Grant Goodall

Director, Linguistic Language Program

Apply to be one of the three funded representatives from your UC Campus. Contact your Steering Committee member for more information.

A list of the Steering Committee members is available on our website. The deadline for application is May 1, 2004.

Guest lectures are free and open to the public.

Application available online at <http://ucclt.ucdavis.edu/>

<http://ucclt.ucdavis.edu>