

A summer workshop presented by the UC Consortium for Language Learning & Teaching

Teaching Language and Culture with Film

University of California, Berkeley, June 15–18, 2009

Marylin FABE (UC BERKELEY)
The Language of Film

Richard KERN (UC BERKELEY)
Making Connections between Film and Literacy

Mark KAISER (UC BERKELEY)
Teaching with Film Clips

Sabine LEVET (MIT)
Cross-cultural Comparison through Film

Anne-Christine RICE (TUFTS UNIVERSITY)
Implementing a Curriculum Built Around Film

Thomas J. GARZA (UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS)
Film as (Con)Text: Using Visual Media in Russian Language and Culture Classes

For complete program, presenter information, and presentation abstracts, visit blc.berkeley.edu/film_workshop_2009.html

UCCLLT
UC Davis
220 Voorhies
One Shields Ave.
Davis, CA 95616

Apply to be one of the funded representatives from your UC campus by sending an email message to each of your campus's Consortium Steering Committee members, stating your name, department, language(s) taught, and your interest in attending the workshop Teaching Language and Culture with Film.

The workshop is open to faculty and graduate students in all languages. Applications for funding must be received by May 1, 2009.

Steering Committee member names and addresses can be found on the UCCLLT web site at uccllt.ucdavis.edu/steering.php